

Raleigh Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., February 19.—Pleasant Valentine features characterized a number of social events in Raleigh the past week, none of them, however, surpassing the Valentine party given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wade R. Brown at the home of Mr. Boylan R. Brown at the home of the faculty of Meredith College, of which Mr. Brown is the dean of music. Miss French, of Massachusetts, received with Mr. and Mrs. Brown. The special features of entertainment provided by the host and hostess charmed and delighted every guest. The hostess was a hostess of Valentines by each guest to some other guest, these affording no end of fun. Then there was a contest of writing Valentines, in which each letter in the word "valentine" must be used to begin words. In this contest the prize was won by Miss Margaret Irene Bright. Delicious refreshments were served.
Mrs. A. D. Glascock, of Charlotte, was the guest of honor for a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade R. Brown on Friday; the guests being the members of the music faculties of Peace Institute, St. Mary's School and Meredith College. Mrs. Glascock was the guest of honor and Mrs. Brown was the hostess. She charmed their guests Friday night with a masterful rendering of Enoch Arden. Mr. Brown rendering the piano accompaniment.
Saturday afternoon Miss Patrice Privat, of Norfolk, and Miss Gertrude Bass were the guests of honor for a charming "at home" by Miss Elizabeth Bass. There were present as special guests students from Meredith College and Wake Forest College, the hostess being a Meredith College student.
Mrs. J. N. Holding was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the Olla Podrida Club. The life and books of Frank Stockton were the special subject for the afternoon. Mrs. F. L. K. Jones, Mrs. W. E. Stone and Mrs. W. N. Jones participated in a program that proved most profitable and enjoyable, features being a sketch of the life of the author and readings from some of his best writings.
Mrs. Albert Murray, as hostess for the Social Club Friday afternoon, gave a most interesting and pleasant suggestion to the entertainment provided, that pleased every one immensely. The decorations were of red and white, with red carnations and ferns. There was a miscellaneous game contest. In which a different game was played at each table. The prizes were won by the club women's prize and Mrs. E. C. Duncan, the visitor's prize.
An especially brilliant success was scored by the committee of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at the Governor's Mansion, which was thrown open to the Raleigh club women. Mrs. Kitchin gave the presentation of a musical program, in which Mrs. A. D. Glascock took a special part. Mrs. Wade R. Brown, as chairman of the music committee, assisted by some of the best musical talent of Raleigh, including Misses Frazier and E. C. Duncan, of Meredith College; Miss Emily Rose Knox, Miss Nellie, of St. Mary's School; Miss Sherwin, of St. Mary's School; Mrs. A. W. Knox, Miss Sadie Duncan and Miss Lundy.
The Fortnightly Review Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Chas. McKinnon, of the Raleigh business section. An election of officers for the next year resulted in the selection of Mrs. James P. Jones as president; Mrs. Robert Strong, as secretary, and Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain, as librarian. The club selected Scottish literature and history as the special study for next season.

Danville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., February 19.—Harrison Robertson's lecture on "Woman's Suffrage" given at the Danville Literary Club, on Wednesday afternoon, was one of the most delightful affairs given at the club since its organization. One of the most delightful functions of the week was the musical tea, given in the assembly hall of Rison Park school, on Saturday afternoon, from 3 until 6 o'clock, for the benefit of the piano fund. Mrs. N. W. Berkeley, one of Danville's musicians, played some beautiful music. The violinists, Louise Skidmore Connor, the violinist,

La Grecque Corset Demonstration

We wish to inform the smartly dressed women of Richmond and vicinity that we have made arrangements with the La Grecque Corset Company to continue their demonstration for another week. The demonstration is in charge of Mme. La Burt, one of the most expert corsetiers in this country. Mme. La Burt will give you expert advice how to improve and bring out the shapeliest lines of your figure, as well as giving you perfect comfort. This will be her last week with us, so don't delay. Come to-morrow if possible.
Not only appearance, but health depends largely upon the style and kind of corset worn. The La Grecque Corset is a product of scientific thought and experiment, with style and health equally considered. It's so easy to become a La Grecque convert. Wear one once, that's all.
